Although there are many who declare that the regiment is in a terrible condition, none of them is willing to lead the march of reform, unless assured of sufficient backing to protect him from possible court-martial.

Capt. Thomas F. Lynch was perhaps the most fearless of the line officers in expressing his opinion. When asked if he thought a general investigation was needed, he said:

"Well, I should smile! All I've got to say is that if the old Thirty-second before it was mustered out was in any worse condition than the Sixty-ninth is in to-day, I am sorry for it.

"The main trouble is the lack of sufficient good Commpany commanders, Some companies are drilling twelve and fourteen men. By all means let us have an investigation, and as soon as possible."

IN DEVERY'S PRECINCT.

Parkhurst Agents Get Warrants fo Disorderly-House Keepers. The Parkhurst Society is keeping up its war on Police Captain Devery's Eleventh Precinct. Capt. Wishart and John H. Lemmon, of the Society for the Preention of Crime, again visited the Essex Market Court this morning. Lemmon swore out two warrants before Justice Voorhis. They were for the arrest of Catharine Schubert, German, thirty years old, of 144 Chrystle street, and Tessie Werner, German, thirty-live years old, of 109 Forsyth street. Both were charged with maintaining disorderly houses at their respective residences.

Court Officer Hagan arrested Mrs. Schubert and Sergeant Chall took Mrs. Werner into custody. Justice Voorhis held them in $509 hall each for examination on Thursday morning at 9.30 o'clock. They were unable to procure hall at the time of their arraignment in court, and were locked up in the Essex Market prison. Mrs. Werner keeps a cigarstore at the Forsyth street address. Mr. Lemmon said that the latest evidence against both of these places was procured on Oct. 19, but they had evidence to show that on several previous occasions the places were disorderly houses. Mr. Lemmon further said that there were cutte a humber of imates in all swore out two warrants before Justice

MRS. ARNOLD LOSES HER SUIT.

She Can Have No Claim on the Chesebrough Estate.

Court of Appeals Decides It-Story of the Action.

The United States Court of Appeals anded down a decision to-day sustainng the decision of the Circuit Court in dismissing the suit of Mrs. Leonora Au-dismissing the suit of Mrs. Leonora Augusta Arnold against the estate of Blazius W. Chesebrough.

The suit has been pending in the courts for several years, and was brought for the purpose of establishing the legitimacy of Mrs. Arnold. If this could have been proven she would have fallen heir to $500,000 worth of property.

The plaintiff's husband is related to John H. V. Arnold, the Tammany Hall candidate for Surrogate.

The General Sessions by The General Sessions building was crowded this morning long before the usual time. The story of the wholesale arrests, and the charges of cons that had been made, had been read by everybody.

There was anxiety to see alleged malefactors, and there was a craning of necks when shortly after 10 o'clock the detectives, with bonds and prisoners, began to file in.
